

The current rules SHOULD NOT be changed to allow for more concentrated ownership of media outlets. COMPETITION is always best! The news in particular is becoming more and more uni-dimentional. This will only continue to get worse if the rules are changed so that fewer media moguls own more of the distribution!

This member of the public believes that the changes in the rules is a BAD IDEA!

Thank you for your consideration!

Susan Stillman